Heard learned counsel for the parties.

The grievance of the petitioner is that though the amount, to which he is entitled, as refund has been adjusted, but no interest was paid or adjusted.

The case of the respondent is that the amount to which the petitioner was entitled as refund has been adjusted within six months, therefore, he is not entitled to any interest.

The petitioner submits that he has made a representation for grant of interest. In these circumstances, without going into the merits of the controversy, we dispose of the writ petition with a direction to the respondent to consider the representation of the petitioner and pass appropriate speaking orders, in accordance with law, within a period of four weeks.
